Susan Pulsipher is uniquely qualified to bring change to the Jordan School District. Susan has a Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education and a Master's Degree in Educational Leadership from BYU. Susan's experience includes: President of the PTO, member of Clark County School District's (CCSD) Parent Advisory Committee, and vice chair of CCSD's Attendance Zone Advisory Commission. Because of Susan's ability to work with people to find effective solutions, CCSD appointed her to chair the Oversight Panel for School Facilities. This committee was formed to recommend to the legislature suggestions for funding school construction and approve district bonds. The committee was made up of city and county council members and business leaders. Susan received special training in school finance. Susan was a commissioner with the Northwest Association of Accredited Schools, a seven state regional accreditation commission, and chaired the member services committee.

Susan is willing and able to make the school board her full-time job. She will bring new, effective, and creative ideas from states throughout the northwest and will lead the district to become a model of curricular reform, community interaction, and scholastic excellence.
